LOCAL UM STUDENTS TAKE PART IN INTERNATIONAL EXCHANGES

MISSOULA --

Twenty-two University of Montana students are taking part in international exchange programs during the 1992-93 school year.

Two Missoula students, Catherine Anderson and Hung Quan, are among the group. Anderson, who hasn't chosen a major yet, is at Sophia University, in Tokyo. Quan, a mathematics major, is studying at the Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Also studying at the Chinese University of Hong Kong is Alan Dolezal, a business major from Ronan.

Billings students Rebecca Huntington, Andy Smetanka, Robert Jahr and Julie Askins are studying abroad, too. Huntington, a Spanish major, is at the Universidad Catolica del Uruguay, in Montevideo, Uruguay. English major Smetanka is studying at Vaxjo University, in Vaxjo, Sweden, and Jahr, a business major, at Kumamoto University, in Kumamoto, Japan. Askins, a political science and economics major, is at Sophia University, in Tokyo.

Other exchange students include Jon Boyle, Tana Rogers and Gary Turner of Great Falls. Boyle, a biology and French major, is at the University of Benin, in Togo, West Africa. Accounting major Rogers is studying at the University College of South Queensland, in Queensland, Australia. Turner, a finance major, is spending the year at the Philipps-Universitat-Marburg, in Marburg, Germany.
